

1-Find the paintings below in the Regimental Gallery and match them with the 3 soldiers by putting the number of the painting where each soldier appears next to their picture frame.

2-One or more Medals below were awarded to them. Use the Regiment Database or Museum display cases to help you find out which ones. 3-Match each mouse with its painting by putting the number of the painting on the poppy flower. The mouse you are looking for on the painting is the size of a fifty pence coin.

Lieutenant Colonel Nicholls,
Alan William Delforce

Corporal (Lance Sergeant)
Philip Smith

Colonel John Cridlan Barrett

- 1-When was the Victoria Cross Medal introduced in the British Army ?
- 2-What is it made of and why is it so special?
- 3-If you were to serve in the British Army which Medal would you like to obtain ?
- 4-Draw in the picture frame below your favourite Medals, a soldier, some Poppy flowers, Sebastopol canon and Colour them in.

