

Arruna Karelia

The inspiration for my square came from my Mum Manjula because she loved embroidery.

She made the yellow embroidery on a pillowcase, and I added all the details to keep her memory alive.

---

Jennifer Falsafi

Family and friends tree of life. A white feather falling from above as loved ones watch over us.

Val

The patchwork is called 'Grandmothers Garden' – I'm a 'Mamma' – my Granddaughter named me.

There's always a cup in my hand and we have a robin in the garden. The wording 'It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice' is something I believe in.

---

Gez Staples

I made this design because my family history is important to me.

Pat Carver

Memories of my late Mum and Dad and our family holidays.

---

Niru

I chose this picture of my Granddaughter Frida, my first grandchild, she is my sunshine and I just adore her.

Sue Beresford

My inspiration is our family home and tree where we all gather together and make memories.

---

Susan Flint Crafty Stitches

My Family

Jane Kenney

Making memories with my family and spending happy times that will be remembered forever in this little piece of fabric.

---

Kesha-Leigh

I like unicorns! There are three of them in my square and I have two sisters, so there are three of us.

We often dream of unicorns.

Anita Pathak-Mould

My work was inspired by my sister Bina and my late mother who was a great embroiderer.

The stitches I've used were taught to me by my Mum when I was a child.

Debra Murray

Paige Murray is in the racing chair and Jade Murray is with the bunny.

So my girls and I like to think that I have installed enough wisdom in them for them to do all they can to make our world a better place for future generations.

Shamso Adan

This represents my home in Somalia and reminds me of my mum sewing in this way...feels like home.

---

Jenny Escritt

I wanted to do a piece about my family and their interests

At the workshop I was introduced to free motion sewing and loved it!

Jill O'Neill

Memories of a place we love - holidays in the Netherlands, cycling, canals and traditional Dutch houses.

---

Bina Pathak

This is a homage to my mum for inspiring me to be the creative person I am today.

Deesh Deogan

My nearest and dearest are my sisters, they mean the world to me. I love them so much.

---

Ramila Parmar

Mum's in Heaven, Love, Hope Peace.

Kashfa Jaffar

This quilt square represents colours and patterns that my Mom adored. The knitted piece is something that my Mom had started but was unable to complete.

In my Mom's loving memory – Nasim Akhtar 01/12/1955 – 11/10/2020

Christine Blackmore

These are all words that mean something special.

